Agenda

The team came up with a name for the application, and from now on, it will be called FoodX. During the meeting, Sydney presented some potential logos, and the team provided feedback before ultimately agreeing on a logo that incorporated a silverware x. Additionally, the team discussed plans for the midterm presentation. SUPSI provided updates on the prototype and confirmed that Expo Go was functioning correctly, checking in with everyone to ensure they were up-to-date. Matteo and Filippo also started writing the chapter about the prototype on the documentation.

Actions

- Everyone begins to fill in project components
- Sydney makes final logo for app
- Start midterm presentation, get outline done
